This weekend is going to be a bit more jolly than normal around the Farmers Market Annex. We're combining the half way point of the farmers market season with the fact the 25th of July falls on a Sunday and we're celebrating Christmas in July!

So dig out your Santa hat, candy cane tie, and ugly sweater (though you might want to cut the sleeves off cause it's going to be warm) and join us in being jolly. No, we won't have trees or wreaths or patio pots for sale yet, but we will have all the great farmers market finds you expect to see all season long.

- Minnesota produce is entering peak season
- Our full spread of concessions vendors are now here, including roasted corn, cheese curds, and corn dogs.
- New vendors being added each week, including Renaissance, Ruby's Pebble Art, and Created from the Seoul.
- Plenty of clothing, jewelry, home goods, artists and all the great small businesses you've come to expect at the Annex.
- Oh, and we're going to have Santa!

Yep, Santa himself, and one of his hard working elves, are taking a break from their summer vacation to hang out at the Farmers Market Annex! Santa will be here from 10:00am to 12:00pm this Sunday, July 25th! Bring the kiddos and get a jump start on getting on Santa's nice list.

It is part of this mission of this family run business to make this a family friendly farmers market. Decorating the Chicken, having the band play Jingle Bells, and pulling Santa away from his summer vacation are just a few of the examples of our commitment to this part of our mission. Please, come be a part of a Next Generation Farmers Market and spread the joy of the summer season this weekend at the Farmers Market Annex!

Find Holiday Gifts for Everyone

Part of being a Next Generation Farmers Market is welcoming vendors of all kinds, beyond the classic fresh, packaged, and prepared food we know and love about all farmers markets. Why not take advantage of this amazing spread of vendors and get some early Christmas shopping done this Christmas in July? From home decor, to clothing, to make up, to stretch therapy, to handmade jewelry, to art, to pottery and so much more. Like the Annex itself, these are all small, family businesses as well, all specializing in what they love. Come show them your support and turn Small Business Saturday, small business summer!

The Annex Tree Lot

As we celebrate Christmas in July, this is a perfect time to remind everyone that when the farmers market season ends on October 31st, the action doesn't stop at the Annex. We jump from produce and fresh eats into Christmas trees and patio pots. We host one of the finest tree lots in the Twin Cities Metro.

- You'll find a fantastic selection of fresh cut fraser, balsam, and pine trees, all grown in Minnesota and Wisconsin.
- We have pre-made winter decor like patio pots, fraser fir wreaths, magnolia wreaths, 5 kinds of garland and door swags.
- Want to create your own holiday decor? We got you covered there too with spruce tops, birch logs, winterberry, evergreen boughs, dogwood, and much, much more.

Come by and shop most any day November and December, or call ahead and prebook! We promise it will be tough to find a better tree lot. You might even get to see the boss pull over his golf cart and tie a tree or two to the top of a car! We will see you back here this November and December!

Fall Wedding Planning

NOW is the time to plan out those fall weddings, and we expect there to be a lot of fall weddings this year. Market Flowers has a wide range of local and out of state growers they buy from, ensuring they can get most any flower or green you want (with a two week notice of course). Visit their website, check out their pre-book list, and feel free to stop into the warehouse on the south side of the market to talk to Diane or Tom about how Market Flowers can help make your DIY wedding flowers a reality.

Come Hungry

We have an abundance of delicious food vendors at the Farmers Market Annex this season. Not only did we welcome back most of our concessions vendors from the 2020 season, but we also welcomed back those from 2019 who took last season off. This makes for a spread of food unmatched this side of the State Fair. You're sure to find something, from fresh to fried, gluten free to a sweet treat. It also an amazing mix of diverse ethnic backgrounds serving up their specialties. So next visit to the farmers market, skip the coffee shop and plan for that caffeine fix, and brunch, here at the Annex.
