Mother's Day is this Sunday! Yes, it may have got lost in the shuffle of not knowing what day of the week it is any more, but indeed this Sunday is the day we show some love to all those moms in our lives.

Though things are a little different this year, the Farmers Market Annex is still the place to go for getting mom something special. We will have lots of vendors again this year (safely spaced out of course) with gifts and goodies of all kinds. This includes many of our 17 new vendors for the 2020 season. From soaps and lotions, to stained glass art, to clothes and jewelry, to treats, to fresh made bouquets. There is sure to be something for everyone's mom.

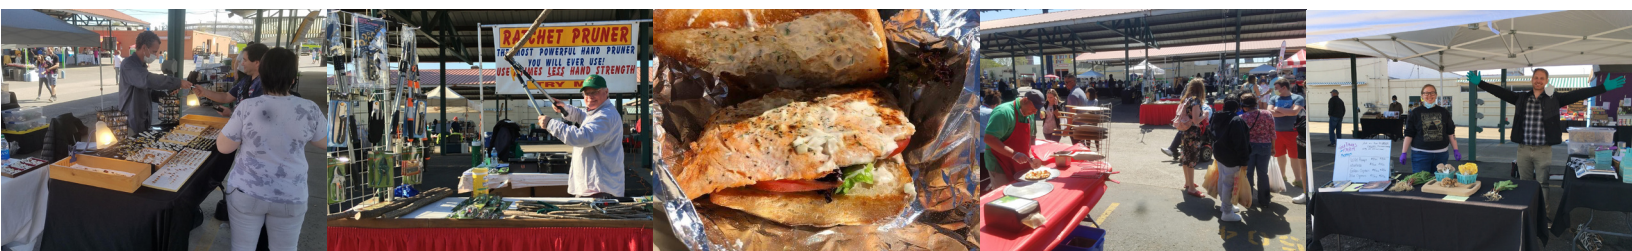

Things at the market may look and feel a bit different, but the selection and quality of Mother's Day gifts is the same as ever. Come to the Farmers Market Annex this weekend, 7am - 1pm both Saturday and Sunday. Get those moms in your life a little something and support local, small businesses.

Vendor spotlight: Idlewilde

Cheryl owns Idlewilde Fragrance. She makes her own custom fragrances for diffusers and candles. She will be well stocked and ready for everyone coming out this Mother's Day. What mom doesn't love something that smells great like these? Enhance your home experience, support a local small business, and put a smile on mom's face.

Pandemic Procedures

Did you hear we are in the middle of a global pandemic? The Farmers Market Annex continues to monitor both the situation at the market as well as guidelines handed down from local, state, and federal authorities. We have a nifty infographic you can find on our homepage that goes over all the changes and rules here, but these are some of the important highlights:

- If you are sick: STAY HOME. We love your business, not your germs.
- Wash your hands frequently. We have sanitizer stations & restrooms on site.
- Please wear a mask. Wear a cool one too and we might just Instagram it.
- Keep at least 6 giant chicken feet between you and everyone else.
- All food is to-go. You don't have to go home, but you can't eat here.

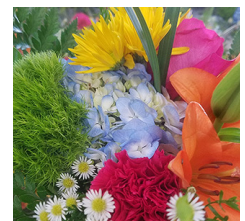

Be safe, be respectful. We are all in this together! Thanks!

Mother's Day Bouquets

Market Flowers is open! Kinda... They will be open, outside at the farmers market, this weekend from 7am - 1pm with fresh made Mother's Day bouquets, sunflowers and more. What mom doesn't love a fresh spring bouquet? Especially being stuck at home these days.

The Market Flowers bulk coolers remain closed at this time. Hopefully the bulk flowers and DIY space will be reopened in the near future. But, they are always open for questions! So, if you are wondering how Market Flowers can help with your 2020 or 2021 wedding, contact them today!

Mother's Day Poem

As a kid did you break all the rules?
Make mom shake her head about school?

As a husband did you go out golfing?
While the wife was home with kids barfing?

Is a friend's stress level burning?
2 months is a lot of distance learning.

Does your sister's breathing seem wheezy?
With no grandparents to babysit, it ain't easy.

So do something right!
Don't stay up to late Friday night
And come get a nice gift for mom!
